Florida State Representative David Santiago Opens Deltona Office

February 19, 2013— The City of Deltona welcomes David Santiago, the City's first elected State Representative. The celebration will be noted with an official ribbon-cutting dedication ceremony for his office in Deltona. The office is located at 777 Deltona Boulevard. The ribbon-cutting is scheduled for 10:30am on Tuesday, February 26th.

Representative Santiago, representing newly created State Legislative District 27, was elected in November, 2012. His term goes until 2014. District 27 includes all of Deltona, stretching across southern Volusia County from Debarry on the St. Johns River to Oak Hill on the coast. Representative Santiago is a resident of the City of Deltona. He previously served as the District 2 City Commissioner from November, 2003 until November, 2007.
