Public Invited to WADE Day to Learn How Not to Drown

April 19, 2016—The City of Deltona along with Swim With Becky and Friends, LLC, invites the public to WADE Day at the Deltona City Hall on Saturday May 7th. WADE (Water And Drowning Education) Day will begin at 11:00am with demonstrations and displays in the City Hall Courtyard, and continue until 3:00pm.

In addition to the demonstrations in the Courtyard, the Deltona Fire Department will conduct First Aid classes, taught by a certified trainer. The classes last 15 minutes with the first session at 11:15am and the second at 11:45am, and will continue that schedule through 3:00pm. Those interested in the First Aid classes can sign up at the event. The Deltona Fire Department will also have an EMT unit and water rescue unit on display.

Attendees will see demonstrations and exhibits from SafeKids Volusia/Flagler, Making Change 4 Drowning Prevention, Pinch-a-Penny, Florida Department of Health, and the Volusia County NDPA. The Volusia County Sheriff's Office will have safety items on display as well as its Command Center Trailer. And the COPS will provide fingerprint IDs for children who attend WADE Day.
